

Clayton Bailey

born 1939

One of the most important and innovative potters representing the Funk Movement, Clayton Bailey was Professor of Art at Wisconsin State U, and is now professor emeritus at California State U. His exhibitions and awards attest to his importance in a major art movement.

Solo exhibitions: Candy Store Gallery, Folsom, CA, M.H. DeYoung Museum, Phoenix Gallery, Triton Museum (Catalog), Natural History Museum of San Diego, Joseph Chowning Gallery, Redding Museum, Civic Arts Gallery, Boise Gallery of Art, Monterey Peninsula Museum, Joseph Chowning Gallery, Oregon School of Arts & Crafts, U of Washington, Uof the Pacific, Joseph Chowning Gallery, John Natsoulas Gallery, Davis, CA, Fresno Art Museum, Uof San Diego, San Diego, CA Joseph Chowning Gallery, Fort Mason Center, Natsoulas Gallery.

Group exhibitions include the Chicago Art Institute, the Smithsonian Traveling Art Exhibit, the American Museum of Contemporary Crafts, the SF Museum of Modern Art with Catalog, the Oakland Museum, Hokkoku Shimbun - Japan, the Carborundum Museum, the Campbell Museum, SSF Museum of Art, J.M. Kohler Art Center (Catalog), Everson Museum, Renwick Gallery (Catalog), De Saisset Museum (Catalog), American Crafts Museum, Palm Springs Desert Museum, Triton Museum (Catalog), San Francisco Arts Commission Gallery, Clocktower

Gallery, Moscone Center, Oakland Museum (Catalog), Sao Paulo Bienial, Centre Georges Pompidou, Paris, France, Corcoran Gallery (Catalog), Harrison Museum of Art, Logan, SF International Airport, Exploratorium, SF, CA, Braunstein Quay Gallery, S.F. Center on Contemporary Art, Institut Francaise de Thessalonique, Greece, San Francisco Craft & Folk Art Museum, Honolulu Academy of Art, Honolulu, Natsoulas Gallery, Hayward Arts Commission, , Brunnier Art Museum, Ames, Wustum Museum, Racine, California College of Arts and Crafts, Fashion Institute of Technology, Whatcom Museum (Catalog), Lincoln (CA) Art Center, Juror (Catalog), Modern Art Museum, Fort Worth (Catalog), Pence Gallery, Davis, CA (Catalog), Lef Foundation, Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art, USA Touring Exhibition (Catalog), San Jose Museum of Art, Crocker Art Museum, The American Center for Wine Food and the Arts, Minna Gallery, Narrative Ceramic Art, Columbus College of Art and Design, Arizona State University Art Museum (Catalog), Lincoln Arts, Kreeger Museum (Catalog), Art Foundry Gallery, Diablo College Art Gallery, Natsoulas Gallery, Henry Art Gallery, University of Washington, Seattle, WA

Awards: American Craft Council Grant, Louis Comfort Tiffany Foundation Grant, two NEA Grant, Fellow NCECA, Patent #4440390 issued to Clayton G. Bailey for a "Novelty Squirted Cup", Panelist, California Arts Council, Artists Fellowship,